

FIRST ROUND FOR GOLD

"Sound Money" Organizes the Louisville Convention.

BECKNER SELECTED CHAIRMAN.

All Other Progress Delayed by the Non-Agreement of the Committee on Credentials—Dilatory Tactics Resorted To and an Almost All Night Session Held—Convention Adjourns in Confusion.

LOUISVILLE, June 26.—The Democratic state convention is more than the annual political derby. It may be a record-breaker in other respects, but there is no doubt about it being of the highest grade in Bourbon bitterness.

The delegates from the 11 congressional districts met at 10 a. m. to choose their respective members for the different committees. Every place on each committee was sharply contested especially those for the committees on resolutions, rules and order of business. The control of the latter committee was wanted by the Hardin or silver men so that nominations would precede the adoption of the platform. The "sound money" men, who favored Clay for governor, wanted the platform adopted first so that in the event of the nomination of General Hardin, who is for free coinage, the latter could not influence the committee in framing a platform to suit his views for unlimited coinage. General Hardin has been co-operating with Senator Blackburn in all the preliminary skirmishing.

There was a double contest in selecting members of the committee on resolutions. First, both the silver and the gold men wanted to get a majority of the members so as to have their respective views incorporated into the platform. Second, Senator Joe Blackburn and ex-Governor J. B. McCreary, both candidates for the senatorship, were running their first heat in competing for the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions. The senatorship was involved in the control of the convention more than the governorship or any of the state offices. The other candidates for senator were ex-Governor Buckner and Governor Brown. Blackburn and Brown are for free silver; McCreary and Buckner are against it. All were on the ground watching chances.

The state committee did not select the temporary officers, but the convention was in the hands of Chairman J. D. Carroll of the state committee till it elected a temporary chairman, for which position the silver men wanted Judge William Beckner, and the sound money men wanted Congressman W. J. Stone. As the chairman of the convention appointed two members at large of the committee on resolutions and on all other committees there was a very hot fight for the presiding officer, and the conservatives had no hearing Tuesday on their plan to divide the members at large of the committees, each side getting one member. This would leave the contest to the 11 congressional districts as to who controlled the committees, but neither side would listen to the conservatives. It was evident from the start that each side would take everything it could get and give no quarter to opponents.

Some of the delegation meetings lasted till noon, when it was announced that the convention would assemble at once. The silver men were very much excited and charged trickery in the selection of members of the committees in some districts. The hottest fight was in the Seventh congressional district where Senator Blackburn was beaten for member of the committee on resolutions by Professor Arthur Yeager, the friend of Secretary Carlisle. The delegates from that district were largely for honest money and the administration, including the endorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle by name, but Blackburn had hoped to get the support of personal friends who oppose his free silver views.

The following is the committee on resolutions:

First district—Augustus Coulter, silver.
Second—W. T. Ellis, silver.
Third—John S. Rhea, silver.
Fourth—S. D. Walker, conservative.
Fifth—J. M. Atherton, gold.
Sixth—R. A. Elliston, gold.
Seventh—Professor Arthur Yeager, gold.
Eighth—James B. McCreary, gold.
Ninth—John F. Haeger, gold.
Tenth—John P. Salyer, gold.
Eleventh—R. M. Jackson, conservative.

As soon as the district meetings were over the delegates flocked to Music Hall, which was packed long before 12 o'clock. Promptly at noon the Democratic state convention was called to order by Chairman Carroll, when Rev. Charles M. Ziemphill of the First Presbyterian church, Louisville, offered prayer. Chairman J. D. Carroll of the state committee spoke at length on the preliminary canvass of the convention, the new issues, the result of the last election and the prospects of the pending campaign.

The election of a temporary chairman was announced as the first thing in order when some time was consumed in clearing the aisles of intruders so the delegates could be seated.

The names of ex-Congressman W. J. Stone and Judge W. H. Beckner were presented for temporary chairman when the roll of 119 counties was called. The rollcall had not proceeded far when Chairman Carroll ruled that instructions were matters for delegates to settle with their constituents, and that the votes would be counted as announced by the chairmen of county delegations.

The rollcall proceeded with all sorts of points of order and dilatory confusion for over an hour when the result was announced as follows: Beckner, 448 1-2; Stone, 420 1-2. The total was 878, but it was not all cast, owing to the contests; necessary to choose, 440. The election of Beckner as temporary presiding officer was made unanimous and a committee appointed to escort him to the chair.

As the combination of Hardin for governor and the silverites supported Beckner and the combination of Clay for governor and the "sound money men" supported Stone, the result of the selection of temporary chairman was received with cheers as a direct advantage for Hardin and indirectly an advantage for the silver men who had been beaten during the forenoon in the district meeting.

On assuming the chair Judge Beckner delivered an eloquent address and assured all that he represented no faction and would rule with impartiality. He pleaded for harmony. That part of the address relating to the financial question was not displeasing to the "sound money men" and not altogether satisfactory to the free coinage men.

Messrs. William Cromwell, J. E. Stone and J. K. Schrader were elected secretaries when the congressional districts were called for members of the committees.

When the Second district was called W. T. Ellis declined to serve and Senator J. C. S. Blackburn was announced as the member of the committee on resolutions for that district. Mr. Ellis had given Senator Blackburn his proxy immediately after the latter was beaten in the Seventh district. The Second district approved of the action of Mr. Ellis.

In appointing the members at large on the committees, Chairman Beckner divided them equally. On resolutions Senator William Lindsay, gold, and J. D. Clardy, silver, were appointed, so that they do not affect the complexion of the committee.

At 2:30 p. m. the convention took a recess to 8 p. m.

On reassembling at 8 p. m., the boxes at Music Hall were filled with ladies in brilliant dress and the rush for the galleries was even greater than during the day. The heat made the hall almost unendurable.

A resolution denouncing the American Protective association was offered and a motion was made by efforts to adopt it without reference. The resolution was referred.

The committee on permanent organization reported Congressman A. S. Berry for permanent chairman and other officers. Adopted. Mr. Berry made a vigorous speech on taking the chair.

Numerous dilatory motions were indulged in, the Clay men wanting an adjournment. As neither the committee on credentials nor the one on resolutions was ready to report the filibustering was kept up for over two hours with much disturbance. The committee on resolutions was ready at 9 p. m., but delayed its report, awaiting that of the committee on credentials, which was fighting over contests among the delegates from Louisville and Newport.

Senator Lindsay prepared the majority report on resolutions, which embraced a strong honest money plank and endorsed Cleveland and Carlisle by name for their financial policy and administrations. It was signed by nine of the 18 members of the committee.

There were two minority reports, one signed by Rhea and Ellis for the free silver at 16 to 1, and the other simply reaffirming the platform of 1892, signed by Clardy and Coulter.

There was intense feeling because the fight between the Hardin and Clay men on seating delegates in the committee on credentials delayed the resolutions and the proceedings of the convention, but nothing could be done toward facilitating business. Several hundred motions to adjourn were voted down and the convention remained waiting, although the committee on credentials, at 11 p. m., announced that it could not report till after midnight.

Senator Lindsay and Chairman Berry refused to report the resolutions or do anything till the report on credentials came in.

The committee on credentials closed up shortly before midnight and reported in favor of the Hardin delegates in Louisville and at Newport, when the scenes of disorder had a short suspension.

When the Clay men offered a minority report on credentials another lively scene was begun with the usual motions for adjournment.

The Clay men had sent for all absentees, some arrived in time to vote after midnight on dilatory motions, with a view to waiting for others. The consideration of the two reports on credentials was pending at 1 a. m. with little prospect of conclusion. Meantime no other business could be brought up, and the committee on resolutions refused to give any of the three reports that are ready for presentation and which represent the views of the conservatives and silverites, as well as of the gold majority. The last named have no doubt of their ability to secure the adoption of the majority report as soon as the contests are settled.

Shortly before 2 o'clock the uproar and confusion became such that Chairman Berry declared the convention adjourned.

The reports on credentials are still pending. The Clay men are making a much more vigorous fight for the nomination for governor since the "sound money" men carried the district meetings and control the convention, as well as the committee on resolutions.

It is stated by some of Hardin's friends if the platform is adopted before nominations are made that Clay may be the nominee, and that Hardin may be as much disappointed as Blackburn was.

FORMING A MINISTRY

The Marquis of Salisbury Accepts the Premiership.

HE NAMES HIS COUNSELLORS

The New Ministry Will Be Aided by the Outgoing One in Passing the Estimates in Time to Enable Parliament to Dissolve July 10—A General Election Will Follow—The Crisis Smoothed Over.

LONDON, June 26.—Yesterday was a day of accomplishment rather than speculation, and it is apparent that the crisis has been temporarily smoothed over, if not entirely passed. The house of commons held a brief session and adjourned without attempting to transact any business.

LORD SALISBURY.

The Marquis of Salisbury held a conference early in the morning with Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, the Duke of Devonshire, Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain and others. The outcome of this meeting was a hasty visit on the part of the marquis to the queen at Windsor, where, it is assumed, he presented a list of names for a proposed new cabinet, and that they were approved by her majesty.

Later in the day the official announcement that the Marquis of Salisbury had formally accepted the premiership made vacant by the resignation of Lord Rosebery, was made in London. This news created somewhat of a sensation, as it was believed that under the existing circumstances the Tory leader would hesitate, if not decline, to accept the premiership.

The new ministry, as far as completed and officially announced, is as follows:

Marquis of Salisbury, premier and secretary of state for foreign affairs.

The Duke of Devonshire, president of the council.

A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury.

Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer.

Right Hon. George J. Goschen, first lord of the admiralty.

It is believed that the Marquis of Salisbury before deciding to form a new ministry received assurances that the outgoing ministry would assist the new government in passing the estimates in time to enable parliament to dissolve by July 10.

The Tories were reluctant, it is said, to take office before a new parliament is elected, on the ground that it would not be good strategy to be actually in power, and in a measure responsible before the general election. With the Liberals still holding office the Conservatives could go to discontented voters and ask them pointedly how things could be different under the present government, adding if the Tories were in power things would be better. But with the Tories actually in office they will have to take a share in the voters' mind of responsibility for present conditions.

Both parties profess to be ready for a general election in July, the outgoing ministers do not appear greatly disheartened. Lord Rosebery and Sir William Harcourt are particularly jaunty and jovial and make it plain that their release from office at this time was the thing most to be desired.

The Irish people are taking a great interest in the present situation. Justin McCarthy has issued a manifesto to the people of Ireland, stating that the defeat of the government has placed Ireland's bitterest enemies in office. "For a brief space before the election," the manifesto says, "Downing street and Dublin castle will be occupied by men pledged to the policy of coercion in Ireland. This defeat was compassed by the factionists who still divide Ireland and by the votes of the Chamberlains, the Russells and other false friends of land reform."

Advocating the continuance of the alliance with the Liberal party is Ireland's only hope of redress, the manifesto appeals earnestly to Irishmen at home and abroad for funds with which to fight their enemies in the coming election campaign.

In an interview John Redmond said that it seemed probable that the elections would result in the defeat of the Liberal party. The Parnellites had invited the government to dissolve parliament when the Liberal party was united. Mr. Gladstone gave the same advice, and he (Redmond) was in a position to assert positively that Mr. Gladstone resigned because the cabinet rejected his advice.

If the government had dissolved parliament then the Liberals would have carried the country on the home rule policy. They now go to the country without a policy, without a leader, beaten, discredited and disheartened. He did not anticipate that the Tory government would coerce Ireland. They would have the power to pass the Irish land bill through the house of lords and they were more likely to do so quickly and to provide more money for the purchase of land than the Liberals. He was not sure that home rule would not be eventually dealt with by the Conservatives. The political prisoners could not be worse off under a Tory government than they were under Mr. Asquith, the retiring home secretary.

Outrage Upon American Railroad Employees in Colombia.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A special to The World from Colon, Colombia, says: Governor Velez of Cartagena and United States Minister McKinney have had a tilt. Mr. McKinney, while on the way here from Bogota, found two Americans, an engineer and a conductor on the Cartagena railway, incarcerated at Cartagena for running over and causing the death of a native woman.

Mr. McKinney at once asked for their release. Upon his request being refused he threatened to invoke the aid of his government, and pressed his demand as the American minister to Colombia. Governor Velez said Mr. McKinney was at the moment only a private gentleman, without a standing, because on quitting Bogota his duties as minister fell upon the locum tenens. The governor thereupon ordered the prisoners into closer confinement.

FRANCE DEMANDS REDRESS.

Details of the Outrages Upon Americans and Other Foreigners at Changtu.

LONDON, June 26.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says the details have been received there of the outrages upon Americans and other foreigners at Changtu, capital of the province of Szechuen, showing that their suffering must have been appalling. The viceroy of the province, it appears, encouraged the Chinese mob to destroy the missionary and other property, and it is reported that a Chinese official attempted to behead Bishop Dunand.

The French minister at Peking has sent an ultimatum to the viceroy of Nanking demanding prompt redress of the wrongs done to foreigners and announcing that in the event of non-compliance with the demands of France, the commander of the French squadron will be empowered to act at his discretion.

Life For Life.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—John Molnar, the Cleveland murderer, was hanged at the penitentiary at 12:08 this morning. His neck was broken and the heart beats ceased in just 13 minutes. Molnar did not eat anything all day, but stood the ordeal bravely. He wept when visited by his old pastor, Molnar and two other Hungarians killed Daniel Gehring because Gehring objected to Molnar marrying his daughter. Molnar was sentenced to be hanged and his accomplices were sentenced to life imprisonment.

Gone For the Summer.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle and Secretary and Miss Morton left Washington on the Pennsylvania railroad at 11 a. m. for Marion, Mass., where they will be the guests of the brothers and sisters of Assistant Secretary Hamlin of the treasury department. At Jersey City they will take the lighthouse tender for Marion, which is across the bay from President Cleveland's summer home.

Incendiary Fires in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Within the last three weeks fully a dozen incendiary fires have been discovered in this city, and between midnight and daylight yesterday morning three attempts were made to burn buildings in three different parts of the city. In every case previous attempts had been made to fire the same buildings. Fire officials are inclined to think that there is an organization of firebugs in the city.

Valuable Check Disappears.

CHICAGO, June 26.—School Agent C. C. Chase either lost or had stolen from him yesterday in the corridors of the city hall a check for $125,000. The money represented was to be used to pay the June salaries of the school teachers. The bank was notified and payment stopped. The only plausible theory entertained by the loser was that he was the victim of pickpockets.

Assaulted and Robbed.

DENVER, June 26.—William Middleton, a market gardener, was called from his house by two men who told him they had a warrant for his arrest. They beat him into insensibility and robbed him of $615 which was sewed in his shirt front, but overlooked $1,000 more in his vest lining. Middleton is likely to die of his injuries. There is no clew to the robbers.

Now Charged With Another Crime.

MCARTHUR, O., June 26.—Elmore Waldren who was convicted at the last term of court of the murder of Thomas Waldren and sentenced to the penitentiary for life, and who was granted a new trial by the circuit court and was out on his own recognizance, has been bound over by Justice Foreman for stealing a horse and buggy.

President Doie's Yacht Stole.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Three sailors of the American ship Tillie E. Starvuck, deserted at Honolulu, stole President Doie's private yacht and attempted to sail for Mexico. They grounded on a coral reef and stuck there until the Hawaiian police came out in a boat and arrested the pirates, who are now in jail.

Filibuster Expedition Comes to an Inglorious End.

CHILDS' PARTY NOT HEARD FROM.

Six of the Number Have Returned to Key West in a Famished Condition—Recent Battles in Cuba Confirmed at Washington—More Fighting Reported From Havana—Insurgents Defeated.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Word reaching official quarters in Washington indicates that the filibustering expedition which was believed to have gone to Cuba on the steamer George W. Childs has come to an inglorious end. The boat was located after reaching Jamaica, but nothing definite has ever been heard as to the party beyond vague statements that they had landed at some remote point on the Cuban coast. The last of these reports was two weeks ago, on the 7th inst., since which time there has been no mention of what the band was doing.

Information now reaching officials here leads to the belief that the party did not reach Cuba, but met with disaster off Florida, resulting in extreme hardships to its members. Six of them have returned to Key West in a famished condition, having lived on crabs in the marshes of the keys off the Florida coast.

From the fact that there has been no trace of the party in Cuba, the officials here believe that those who have suffered such hardships in the swamps are the main band of the Childs' party.

Official confirmation was received from Havana yesterday as to the engagement between Major Gargia Delgado with his Spanish command and Cassalles' insurgent forces. Cassalles and two others were killed and the band dispersed. The engagement is said to have been specially important because of its locality. It occurred on the plantation of San Jose, near Placetas, province of Santa Clara. This is the point nearest to Havana that the insurgents have reached. There was added feeling over their proximity to the capital, because their commander, Cassalles, first enlisted in the Cuban volunteers in the service of Spain, and afterward deserted to the insurgents. His death, it is claimed, will break up the operations nearest Havana.

In view of the developments as to the Childs filibustering party it is not improbable that the United States cruiser Raleigh will turn her attention to them. She left Key West Monday without announcing her destination, and it is possible she received the information which now reaches here.

FIGHTING CONTINUES.

Two More Engagements, One of Them Said to Be Quite Disastrous.

HAVANA, June 26.—The band of insurgents recently commanded by Major Casalles, who deserted the enemy with a number of soldiers and who was afterwards killed in the fight at the San Jose plantation near Placetas, has been broken up and is in a demoralized condition. Twenty-five members of the band have surrendered.

The troops came upon a band of insurgents in the La Javias mountains not far from Colorado, and captured 15 saddle horses and five carbines.

The three columns of troops which started on Saturday last from Hongolo Songo, province of Santiago de Cuba, in the direction of Gran Piedra, in order to attack the strong positions occupied by the insurgents in the Sierra Maderia, have encountered the enemy. The columns, consisting of 2,000 men, were under Generals Casco, Garcia and Navarro.

The Navarro column has captured the insurgents' position, with their camp, arms and ammunition. The insurgents lost many dead and wounded and are being pursued in the direction of Siboney. Although the place in which the insurgent camp and hospital were located was thought to be inaccessible, only three soldiers were wounded during the engagement.

Dispute Between Consuls.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 26.—A dispute has arisen here between the American and Spanish consuls regarding the character of the steamer Bridgeton, which put in here in a half wrecked condition, which her captain said was due to her having encountered a severe storm. She followed close upon the arrival of the George W. Childs, which is alleged to have landed a filibustering expedition in Cuba. The Spanish consul here alleges that the Bridgeton is a filibuster.

WAR VESSELS SENT SOUTH.

The South Atlantic and Florida Coast Patrol Strengthened.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The secretary of the treasury has decided to materially strengthen the South Atlantic and Florida coast patrol and for that purpose will probably send down the revenue cutters Forward, Morrow and Winona.

These cutters will be assigned to the double duty of enforcing the quarantine laws against yellow fever infected vessels from southern ports, and preventing the departure of any Cuban filibustering expeditions. It is thought that with these additions to the naval force in these waters, it will be almost impossible for any armed vessel to reach a Cuban port. A sharp lookout will be kept in all of the rivers and arms of the sea indenting the southern coast, and any expedition found arming against Cuba will be promptly dealt with.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The doings of the Democratic State convention will be found in our dispatches.

The gratifying feature of the proceedings yesterday was the victory of the "sound-money" advocates. The Committee on Resolutions stood about 9 to 4 against the free silver craze. Senator Blackburn who wanted to represent the Seventh Congressional district on this Committee was easily defeated by the friends of the administration and of sound money.

Hon. John F. Hager, of Ashland, represented the Ninth district in the Committee on Resolutions, Hon. W. G. Dearing, of Fleming, in the Committee on Organizations and Mr. C. B. Willis, of Brooksville, in the Committee on Credentials.

The convention will probably complete its work to day.

"Every Democrat will be for the nominee of the Louisville convention," says the Winchester Democrat. If not, they all ought to be. There's nothing to be gained by voting for a Republican.

The Philadelphia Times has the following:

We hear from spurious patriotism so often the genuine article should at least be permitted to make a yearly report of the Fourth.

Close the stores, the shops and other places of business Thursday week, and give all the patriots a holiday, so they can take in the races at the fair grounds.

In a discussion of the silver question Hon. Josiah Patterson has driven in several nails and clinched them. Here is a sample:

Drive a nail through the center of a silver dollar and it is only worth a little over fifty cents. Drive a nail through a gold dollar and it is still worth one hundred cents. Tried by fire, the gold dollar, when melted, is worth one hundred cents. Tried by fire, the silver dollar, when melted, is worth about fifty-five cents.

At a recent meeting of the Republicans of Colorado at Denver, a resolution was introduced pledging Colorado Republicans to vote in 1896 for no party "which does not unequivocally declare in its platform for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1." Notwithstanding the resolution was offered in the capitol of the heaviest silver producing State in the Union it was voted down by an overwhelming majority, the delegates declaring that they were Republicans first and silver men second. Here is a lesson for Democrats everywhere, says an exchange. It is not necessary for the Democracy of Kentucky or elsewhere to make monkeys and parrots of themselves when silver mine owners and their employees are "Republicans first and silver men second."

AGRICULTURE, communism, populism, fiatism have no place in the Democratic creed, and can not be incorporated into it. They all have their origin in the same political atmosphere, and in the end they would all produce the same fatal results upon the republican institutions under which we live. They are not indigenous to our soil; they are the products of monarchical and arbitrary systems of government, and have been imported from the centers of metaphysical and impractical politics in Continental Europe. A free and prosperous country can never be the permanent home of these wild and revolutionary theories, and any political party that gives them countenance or encouragement will perish with them, and ought to perish with them.—Secretary Carlisle's Louisville speech.

River News.

Pittsburg Post: "The accumulation of coal in the harbor and pools is becoming a serious problem for the river coal operators to solve, in the face of the probabilities that there will be no rise until fall. Two thirds of June has passed away and brought no rise, although the "June rise" is a proverb among the rivermen of the Ohio. While there is no telling what may be coming in the shape of water, yet it is a fact that with every day that passes the chance of getting the stock of coal in the Pittsburg rivers to market grow less. There are cases on record where the month of June has been as dry as this, to be followed by heavy rains in July, which furnished ample water for coal boating. Such seasons are the exception and not the rule; and it more frequently happens that when the June rise fails to materialize there is no steamboating until autumn. The amount of coal in the harbor and pools is variously estimated all the way from 13,000,000 to 16,000,000 bushels. When all the coal from the third pool down to Davis Island Dam is included in the estimate it is likely that the guess of a prominent official of the Monongahela Navigation Company was not far from right. He is in a position to give as good an estimate as any one, and placed the amount at 600,000 tons, or about 15,500,000 bushels."

Captain Edgington has gotten out handsome time-cards, giving the schedule of his three packets,—the Reliance in the Rome-Portsmouth trade, the Silver Wave running between Vanceburg and Maysville and the Augusta and Maysville packet M. P. Wells.

A FALLEN MINISTER.

Rev. Mr. Best, of Ripley, Suspended For Three Years For Getting Drunk.

A special from Ripley to the Cincinnati Post says: "The Portsmouth Presbytery, in session here, on Monday suspended Rev. Best, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, for three years, and even left that period open for an extension."

"Rev. Best was accused of getting drunk, and, appearing before the Presbytery, made a full confession. Some days ago he went to Portsmouth in the matter of some trouble Rev. Gobiet, of that place, was having with his church, and while there Rev. Best imbibed too freely. This hastened his hearing before the Presbytery."

"Some time ago he went to Cincinnati, where he got drunk, and, falling off a bicycle, injured himself so severely he was laid up in the City Hospital for several days."

SIX—TWO.

That Was the Score of Yesterday's Game, and Maysville Won—It Was Lively.

Yesterday's game of ball at the new park was one of the most interesting exhibitions of the great National sport witnessed here this season.

The Maysvilles won, but they had to watch every point to do so. In only three innings were they able to reach scoring territory, and the Huntington boys made the circuit but twice.

Captain McGann was the bright particular star of the game, at the bat. His liner down left for a home run in the fourth, with one man on base, was a corker, and was greeted with wild cheers.

It was Geo. Rieman's fine work in the box, however, that really won the game. He let the visitors down with four hits, and two of those were not made until the ninth inning.

Smith pitched for Huntington, and he was almost as much of a puzzle for the Maysvilles as Rieman was for the visitors. The locals got six hits.

It was a pitcher's battle in which Maysville's star twirler again carried off the honors.

Van Winkle, Maysville's new third baseman, established himself as a favorite before the game was half finished, by his fast work. He was a little wild in his throwing to first once but made up for this by his excellent playing at other stages of the game. He figured in two neat double plays, and came within an ace of stretching one of them into a triple.

With the exception of Van Winkle's wild throw and a wild throw by Hall the locals put up an errorless game.

The game opened with the Huntingtons at the bat. Errors of the locals enabled them to get two men on bases, and with only one man out it looked like they would succeed in scoring. Poage who was on first started to steal second, and was purposely caught between bases, to give Lauterbach a chance to get home from third. McGann, however, chased Poage back, and then caught Lauterbach at third. Zimmer retired them by going out from Van Winkle to Sutherland.

Both sides were blanked until the fourth, when the Maysvilles started the business. After Curle went out to P. Rieman, Hall reached first on Watson's fumble of his grounder. Captain McGann then landed on a good one and sent it rolling to the left fence for a home run.

In the fifth, with Wadsworth and Sutherland out, Tenley hit to third and went to second on Watson's wild throw. Cox followed with a grounder to right, scoring Tenley.

In the sixth, Curle hit to short and got to first. Hall went to first by a hot hit to pitcher which the latter couldn't handle. Captain McGann then sent a hot one through Watson's hands, scoring Curle, and going to second, advancing Hall to third. Van Winkle lifted one over second, scoring Hall and McGann. Wadsworth and Sutherland retired the side by going out on flies to Gains and Bruner.

The visitors never reached scoring territory until the seventh. With one out, Poage hit to left for three bases. Zimmer then hit to Sutherland and went out. Smith sent one to third, who threw wild to first, allowing Poage to score. A single by P. Rieman, a base on balls, and a bad throw enabled the Huntingtons to get one run in the eighth. In the ninth Gains and Poage singled over second in succession, and it again looked like the visitors would score, but Cox took Zimmer's fly and doubled Gains at third. The next batter up ended the game by going out.

SHORT STOPS.

Ashland News: "The Cincinnati Reds play with Maysville Friday, and they will have no cinch on the Bluegrass lads."

Ashland News: "Unless the signs are wrong, Maysville, in Reiman, has one of the best pitchers outside the big league. Reiman has made some remarkably fine records this summer, and that Huntington figure of fifteen strike outs isn't a bad one."

The teams play again this afternoon. Bradley will likely pitch for Maysville, although he is not in good condition. Taylor or Bruner will be in the box for Huntington.

The game to be played with the Cincinnati Reds Friday is the one of absorbing interest now in base ball circles. The indications point to be a big attendance. The largest crowd of the season will no doubt be on hand to witness this game.

THE RUNNING RACES.

A Good Attendance of Horsemen and Some Good Sport Anticipated.

Says the Thoroughbred Record: "The Maysville Fair Company will give a running meeting of three days, beginning July 4. Five races will be given each day, with the majority of purses $150. The rates for shipping from the Cincinnati tracks are so low and the Maysville grounds so easily reached, that there will doubtless be large fields and a successful meeting. The meeting will be an excellent opportunity for some of the strings which are overflowing the Latonia and Oakley tracks to earn something more than oats, and as the Maysville track is so close by the trip should not cause any injury to their condition.

"The meeting is an experiment which should be successful, and if other fair associations should give running meetings instead of the tedious trotting races between bandy-legged scrubs it would probably add to their revenue and relieve the overcrowded condition of the big race tracks."

Fourth of July.

Remember that toll will be only one-half during the running meeting. Go to see the runners. High class racing is assured.

CROP REPORT.

Returns Made to the Weather Bureau For the Week Ending June 24.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The weather bureau in its report of crop conditions for the week ending June 24 says:

The past week has been generally favorable though somewhat too cool in the Dakotas and Minnesota for some crops, especially corn, while excessive rains have proved injurious over the central and western portions of the cotton region.

Drouth has been relieved over the greater part of the Ohio valley, but continues in central Wisconsin, southern Michigan and in portions of Tennessee, Pennsylvania and New York.

Harvesting of winter wheat has continued and is now general over the northern portion of the wheat belt and is nearing completion in the southern portion. Threshing has begun in Illinois and Tennessee.

The weather for the past week has proved favorable for spring wheat, sustaining the previously reported excellent condition of this crop, which is now beginning to head.

Corn has made good growth during the week, and except in the Dakotas and Minnesota, where it is reported backward, the general condition is excellent. The crop has been largely laid by in the southern states, and in Kansas is beginning to tassle and silk.

Cotton has been injured by heavy rains in the central and western portions of the cotton region, and in Texas and Louisiana the crop is reported very grassy. It is reported as fruiting well in Mississippi and as in improved condition in eastern Alabama, Arkansas and North Carolina. Florida and Oklahoma report the crop in excellent condition.

The oats harvest has begun in the southern states and the reports as to the crop are generally favorable. In Iowa the largest crop ever harvested in that state is promised.

Tobacco planting is about completed, and in Ohio, where the plants were last week reported dying, the recent rains have proved of great benefit.

A heavy frost occurred in Utah on the 8th, causing considerable damage.

WRECK ON THE GEORGIA CENTRAL.

Three Men Killed and Several Others Badly Injured.

MACON, June 26.—A serious wreck occurred yesterday on the Central railroad near Milledgeville, some 20 miles from here at 5:30 o'clock in the morning. Three men were killed and several badly injured. The dead are: Tom Allen, section foreman; Bob Smith and Bob Jesse, both of the latter colored train hands.

The freight train that arrives at Milledgeville at 5:30 a. m., had stopped at Midway station to shift some cars when a service train, loaded heavily, approached the station, which is on a steep grade. A coupling pin broke and the cars rushed down the grade and struck, plunging through the baggage-car that had been left on the main line by the freight train. None of the injured are seriously hurt.

On the northwest corner of Main and Water streets stands a large dwelling. For near half a century it has been the scene of joy and music and happiness. Here the young and the middle aged gathered within its hospitable walls, but now its shutters are closed, its curtains are down, a sad and lonely silence sits upon its altars. She who once presided over its destinies and whose gentle spirit shed a halo of joy and gladness on all around her sleeps beneath the sod, the children have gone to seek their fortunes in the distance, West, the voices that once resounded are heard no more, the chords of the piano that once resounded in cheerful notes to the gentle touch vibrate no more. All is silent, the once happy home is home no more; soon the tread of him who is left alone, the echo of whose footsteps recoil upon his sad and lonely spirit, like the wail of a moaning wind, and he longs for the time to come when he will leave these desolate scenes and speed him away to the cooling breezes, the white capped lakes of Nothern Michigan.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE"

IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."
"The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power."
A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.
To exchange a faded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.
To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.
To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.
The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.
A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:
"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"
And another thus:
"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."
Write to the ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any name, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.
